I would like to open the floor to questions, comments or concerns

jess 8:07 PM

The goblet place looks good

Justin Friedberg 8:08 PM

never heard of BG before, but seems like a good place to try if it's got some future opportunities with it as well

Ryan Bross 8:08 PM

Does BG have a full bar?

Robert 8:08 PM

BG would be Saturday 2/3 in the late afternoon

jess 8:08 PM

I'm not a beer drinker. It's the menu that's got me sold

Robert 8:08 PM

BG does infact have local PA spirts and wines available. As well as a potential seltzer

jess 8:08 PM

Game changer

Justin Friedberg 8:09 PM

oh i'm a big seltzer fan as well so that's a good one for me lol

Robert 8:09 PM

This is right outside of Bensalem right off the Street Road exit of 95

Ryan Bross 8:09 PM

I dont see there being any complaints about BG then

Robert 8:09 PM

Hopefully they will still be producing it

Robert 8:10 PM

Ok if no one has concerns, I would like to open it to vote if needed

Erick Jusino 8:10 PM

I don't think we've tapped into Bensalem before so I think it's a good idea

Robert 8:10 PM

Technically NECB is 5-10 mins away

Justin Friedberg 8:10 PM

The pricing seems reasonable with a solid menu and the date we were looking for. No real concerns from me

Robert 8:11 PM

Plus we have a stage for potential DJ And tons of tables and seating

I will be reaching out to Andrew to potential DJing And changes to the menu needed?

jess 8:12 PM

Not from me

Racheal Gray 8:12 PM

I like that there is a vegan menu I think people will really appreciate that

Erick Jusino 8:13 PM

I usually add a veg item and a veg side

Justin Friedberg 8:13 PM

never hurts to throw in that option tbh

Erick Jusino 8:13 PM

like fries can be veg

Justin Friedberg 8:14 PM

feels like a unanimous BG vote, though obviously an official vote should be done

Ryan Bross 8:14 PM

Veggie options are listed above

Erick Jusino 8:14 PM

oh nice yea that's perfect

Justin Friedberg 8:15 PM

always love me a hummus tray for sure

Ryan Bross 8:15 PM

Vote yay or nay on moving forward and booking with HKH at Broken Goblet

Ryan Bross 8:15 PM

Thanks @Robert

8:16

Moving on to the EOY volunteer thank you event, @Kelsey Luckenbach

Robert 8:18 PM

Thanks guys, I will get confirmation on the date and times and the menu

Kelsey Luckenbach 8:19 PM

Putting a deposit down this week to secure Dec 16th date. We should have plenty of non alcohol and alcoholic drinks at lot to load a few coolers up and bring with since it's BYOB to begin with. Will bring whatever snacks are left as well and then will buy some sandwich platters and food options. Waiting to hear from the owner for some local suggestions as I'm not too familiar with area.

8:20

@Robert created a sign up genius over the weekend so we can get a final head count of volunteers and capos leading up to event

Robert 8:20 PM

There are a few pizza places around that will deliver we can work with. Jay definitely has the best idea

Kelsey Luckenbach 8:20 PM

Thank you @Robert 😊

8:20

Any questions?

jess 8:20 PM

Nope

Ryan Bross 8:21 PM

Thanks @Kelsey Luckenbach

8:21

@jess please update us on the election questions

jess 8:22 PM

Thanks Ryan Just that I have received 3 responses back, but I dropped the ball and did not send out the questions until last night.

8:22

That's it for me

Ryan Bross 8:23 PM

Thanks Jess

Ryan Bross 8:24 PM

@Erick Jusino what do you have about creating the committee under Philanthropy Director?

8:31

Any last minute Old Items?

jess 8:31 PM

No

Robert 8:31 PM

No

Ryan Bross 8:32 PM

New Items

-Polar Plunge

-Stadium Clean Out

8:32

Polar Plunge

@Robert please give us details on the Polar plunge

Robert 8:33 PM

Polar Plunge will be held on Saturday February 10th at CBP once again. The team page is live and will be shared out on our chat later

8:33

I encourage folks to either join or donate to the team

Justin Friedberg 8:33 PM

I'll actually be around this time. I'm in

Robert 8:33 PM

It really wasn't that bad last year ;)

8:34

When I get more information I will pass it along to the group

Racheal Gray 8:35 PM

I'll join again it was fun

Jon Light 8:35 PM

I will join as well

Robert 8:36 PM

We can also talk with Special Olympics to allow us to have a team tent again

8:36

Also might discuss with the FO to see if this would count as U-Serve since they work with Special Olympics

Ryan Bross 8:37 PM

Good idea

Robert 8:37 PM

True

Jon Light 8:37 PM

They were there last year

Robert 8:37 PM

But they didn't have a team

Jon Light 8:38 PM

I'll make sure we get better quality shirts this year please grab shirt sizes for me as people sign up

Robert 8:38 PM

I'd like to explore a towel option if it doesn't cost a lot

Jon Light 8:39 PM

Shouldn't be too costly. I'll talk to tim

Racheal Gray 8:39 PM

A towel would be cool! Instead of a shirt?

Robert 8:39 PM

Because Plungers already get an event shirt

Jon Light 8:39 PM

Yeah that makes sense

Ryan Bross 8:39 PM

I think its about a 4 week turnaround so keep that in mind

Jon Light 8:40 PM

We can order some generic ones

Robert 8:40 PM

So we set a hard date for sign ups in order to get the gift. If not, we give them a tailgate voucher

Jon Light 8:40 PM

Like order 50 towels whatever is left sell for additional profits towards polar plunge

Robert 8:41 PM

Maybe

Jon Light 8:41 PM

If they aren't dated or whatever we can sell them year round. People bought the beach towels at all points of the year

Ryan Bross 8:41 PM

The towel should be exclusive or otherwise themed to the event. The extras could be sold to benefit.

jess 8:42 PM

The towel is one of my.top 5 all time favorite merch items

Ryan Bross 8:42 PM

Have a hard sign up date to guarantee a towel

Jon Light 8:42 PM

I hate the beach towel personally lol it's just not a good towel fine to lay on tho. I'll start working on a design and looking at vendors tomorrow. I think kww made the other ones

Ryan Bross 8:43 PM

It was Global And they still make them

@Robert you could also order 50 (or the minimum) and say "the first ## to sign up get an exclusive SoB beach towel"

8:45

Thanks Rob

8:46

-Stadium Clean Out

8:47

Last week Eddie asked if we could move the materials we want to keep, out of the stadium.

I was a little preoccupied when he asked so I didn't mention it right away

8:48

Planning on Wed at 1:30

8:48

With Friday (at noon) a second day if needed.

8:49

Robert 8:49 PM

Couldn't you do it on Saturday when you can get more people to help?

Mike Blankemeyer 8:49 PM

this wednesday?

jess 8:50 PM

I'm at work both those times

Mike Blankemeyer 8:50 PM

ditto

Ryan Bross 8:51 PM

Theres nobody on Saturdays to open the building.

Robert 8:51 PM

Lame. Yeah I got work too

Ryan Bross 8:52 PM

I'll check to see if we could do a Saturday. There might be youth games that will have the building open

Mike Blankemeyer 8:53 PM

what's there that we would want to keep?

Ryan Bross 8:54 PM

Its mostly the tifo from this year and then the capo supplies/tools that stay in the stadium

Erick Jusino 8:54 PM

I can probably swing wednesday but only a 90 min window from 1:30-3:00

Ryan Bross 8:55 PM

They're moving around what each space it used for and it sounds like 140 will be used for the practice field maintain equipment

I asked @Kirsten to make a post for volunteers

8:55

Anything else

8:56

On any topic?

8:56

Justin Friedberg 8:56 PM

nope

Ryan Bross 8:56 PM

Move to close

Mike Blankemeyer 8:56 PM
